Association President Major Mike Newbond Presenting CFN Mark Stonehouse with the RAEME Association (Vic) Inc 2016 "Craftsman of the Year" Shield.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

2015 seemed to have whizzed past. It seems that the older we get, the shorter the year becomes.... I hope that you enjoyed a Merry Christmas and look forward to a Healthy year ahead.

Let me take this opportunity to thank your committee members for the solid support that I have been given over the last year and look forward to their continued support throughout 2016. If it were not for the dedication of the committee, this organisation would not survive, so please support us during 2016.

On Saturday 14 November 2015, we attended the Bandiana Chapter Dinner. Your assn. was represented by Alan Rogers (Secretary), Dennis Clarke (the newly elected RNA Vice President) and his wife Martha, and myself with my wife, Janice. Unfortunately, Verna (Alan's wife), although she travelled to Albury, was too ill to attend the function.

Congratulations to Grant Connolly (President), George Reid (Secretary) of the Bandiana Chapter and their team for the well organised and attended dinner!

We even managed to walk away with three raffle prizes!

Our RAEME Birthday was celebrated on Friday 27 November 2015 with a dinner at the Clayton RSL.

We presented the Craftsman of the Year trophy to CFN Mark Stonehouse. Congratulations to 4 CSSB with their successful nomination.

The three course meal was delicious and I take this opportunity to thank the new Clayton RSL Chef, Lee on the magnificent service that he provided.

PARADE THEME.

A letter from Brigadier Neale Bavington RFD ED former Commander 3rd Division FF Gp, and the Chairman of the Reserve Forces Day Council Victoria.

Ladies and Gentleman,

Please accept this letter as a warning order. Next year we will commemorate the formation of the Third Division One Hundred Years Ago. Historians still report the 3 DIV is "the longest serving Australian Army Division", although it was taken off the Orbat after 75 years of Service.

1916 was the year that John Monash was promoted to Major General and assumed command of 3rd Division.

The Grand Reunion Parade and Commemorative Service of the 3rd Division will take place on Sunday 3rd July 2016 at the Shrine of Remembrance Melbourne at 10am.

I look forward to welcoming you at this event, please make an effort to come.

Regards,

BRIG N Bavington. RFD ED

Chairman

Reserve Forces Day Council VIC INC.

It is expected that the Parade will be conclude by 11.45 am.

Personnel who feel the March is too much and would like to watch/ participate are encouraged to come with their family we have an area set aside but you will need to bring a folding chair, please make the effort.

RAEME is the second largest Corps in the Australian Army, there is no reason that we cannot have the largest contingent marching on this parade

We look forward to you joining this commemorative and colourful event.

New Head of Corps - RAEME:
BRIG Hayden Kohl

BRIG Kohl was recently appointed Head of Corps-RAEME to replace BRIG Andrew Mathewson. The following is substantially an email BRIG Kohl sent out to a wide RAEME distribution list introducing himself to serving members of the Corps. This is an edited version to introduce him to present and past members of the Corps in our Association. We offer BRIG Kohl congratulations on behalf of the RAEME Association (Victoria) Inc.

'As you are all aware, I have been given the honour by Chief of Army of being the new RAEME Head of Corps, effective 6 Sep 15. In my new capacity, I immediately want to recognise 'Matho' (BRIG Mathewson) for his efforts as Head of Corps over recent years, in particular, for all his work and strong support for the Corps History Book project and his work on Plan Pelican, the review of RAEME support to Army aviation.

I am very conscious that most of us in the HOC Cell are volunteers, or undertaking our Corps represented roles as extra-regimental appointments, and as a result, we can't do everything that we would like, to move the Corps forward. Indeed, 'Matho' told me that his single greatest frustration was not having sufficient time to spend on Corps matters that he would have liked. In recognition of this situation, I thank you all for stepping up to the challenge and if there is anything I can do to make the workload slightly easier, then please let me know.

As most of you would be aware, I am currently posted as the DG Land Vehicle Systems within LSD in the newly established Capability Acquisition and Sustainment Group (CASG) previously the Defence Materiel Organisation (DMO). In this role I believe I am well placed to understand what equipment is coming down the line for our tradesmen to maintain, but I also know that a lot of my knowledge regarding maintenance in the field is dated, so I will need your assistance/thoughts to make sure anything I say from a Corps perspective is based on the realities of contemporary operations. This is especially so for the forthcoming review of the support RAEME provides to land materiel, known as Plan Centaur. I know that Bill Myer (SO2 Corps Heritage, is planning for a Corps Committee Meeting in Melbourne and I am looking forward to catching up with as many members of the Committee, as I can on the day. I'm also keen to get out and about and meet the members of the wider Corps – so hopefully we can get to know each other, when I am in your locations. I certainly know that BRIG Dave McGahey, Project Director for Plan Centaur, and I will be speaking regularly as the momentum grows behind this important project; indeed I have already unashamedly plagiarised his presentation at the Corps conference, when speaking recently, as the figures he presented, speak for themselves.

Finally, I must take this opportunity to thank BRIG Ross Grant (Rtd), and his team for a stellar effort with the Corps History Book. I think the simplest metric that everyone would understand is that over 50% of the books have been sold in only two weeks – a success by any measure.'
